

Squads 200

Kids Wired Headphones

Safe Listening For Young Ears.

Little ears might be delicate but little people can be anything but, especially when listening to their favorite tracks. Motorola's new Squads headphones, for children aged 3-8, are specially designed to protect a child's developing hearing with an 85dB safe audio limit and anti-allergic cushion pads but are rugged enough to withstand their developing strength. Adjustable headband to grow with your child.
